Monaco Art Week celebrates its 5th edition

A new artistic journey from the July 4–9.

Monaco Art Week, organized under the High Patronage of H.S.H. Prince Albert II of Monaco, celebrates its 5th edition from the July 4–9, 2023, offering a new artistic journey in the Principality of Monaco. Monaco Art Week is at the heart of a particularly busy cultural week this year. Running in parallel with the art monte-carlo international fair (8th and 9th July), it coincides with the opening of the major summer exhibition « Monet in Full Light » at the Grimaldi Forum (from 8th July) and will close at the time of the «F(è)aites de ladanse», during which the Ballets de Monte-Carlo will take over the Place du Casino for 24 hours of performance (8 and 9 July). Galleries and auction houses gather for the occasion around exhibitions and cultural events, offering a varied programme of modern art, contemporary art, design and high jewellery creations.

Monaco Art Week

Monaco Art Week 2023 features 15 exhibitions and brings together 16 members: Artcurial, Boghossian, Christie's, G&M Design Gallery, Hauser & Wirth, HOFA, Kamil Art Gallery, Lebreton, Elisabeth Lillo-Renner, M.-F. Toninelli Art Moderne, Opera Gallery, Galerie Adriano Ribolzi, Sotheby's, Teos Gallery Monte-Carlo, Wannenes Art Contact, and Ward Moretti at Moretti Fine Art. A real art tour will sparkle up the street of Monaco.

Artcurial

Artcurial, for the first time in the Principality, presents a private Monegasque collection of the most emblematic pieces of transalpine design, including historical design pieces represented by the best architects and designers such as Gio Ponti, Gino Sarfatti, Fausto Melotti, Gabriella Crespi, or the Campana Brothers. Artcurial is once again taking over the gardens and palaces of the Principality with a new itinerary bringing together carefully selected sculptures by iconic artists of the 20th and 21st centuries such as François-Xavier Lalanne, Balthasar Labo, Wang Keping, Arman, César, Philippe Hiquily and Allen Jones.

Boghossian

Boghossian presents its latest collection of jewelry pieces evoking the tranquil waters and clear skies of a blue summer. The collection features an array of stunning stones, which have been handpicked for their unique color, texture, quality and meticulously set using innovative techniques that are the hallmark of the Maison Boghossian.

Hauser & Wirth

This exhibition pairs John Chamberlain's early poetry with his sculptural series Gondolas and Tonks from the 1980s, epitomizing the artist's poetic approach to materials and scale. Chamberlain's poetry will be shown publicly for the first time, illuminating a sensitive and little-known aspect of his practice produced at Black Mountain College in the 1950s.
